

GARRIGUES

Carlos Omar Castañeda Saavedra

Associate

Mexico City

carlos.castaneda@garrigues.com

Corporativo Reforma Diana - Paseo de la
Reforma, 412 - 26th floor

Col. Juárez - 06600 Mexico City (Mexico)

Tel: +52 55 1102 3570

Fax: +52 55 1102 3599

Tax

Administrative and Constitutional Law

Carlos Omar Castañeda Saavedra is an Associate of the Tax Department of the Mexico City office. His professional practice focuses mainly on consulting and handling litigation regarding local taxes, as well as handling administrative procedures before local authorities.

He joined the Firm in 2024. Prior to joining, he worked for more than six years in the Mexico City offices of the Chevez, Ruiz, Zamarripa Firm.

He has a Law Degree from the IITESM, and is a candidate for a Master's Degree in Tax Law from the Universidad Panamericana. He has written various articles on tax matters that have been published in specialized media.

Carlos has been involved in litigation processes regarding digital intermediation and green taxes.

Experience

Carlos practice focuses mainly on consulting and handling litigation regarding local taxes, as well as handling administrative procedures before local authorities.

His litigation practice covers all applicable local taxes in Mexico.

Academic background

Carlos has a Law Degree from the TESM, and is a candidate for a Master's Degree in Tax Law from the Universidad Panamericana.

Teaching activity

Carlos has been invited as a speaker on green taxes in the master's degree in Tax Planning and International Taxation, as well as in the master's degree in Territorial Planning.

Memberships

Carlos is an active member of the National Bar Association of Mexico. INCAM

Publications

Carlos has written diferent articles on local taxes and digital intermediation that have been published in specialized media.