Experience

Juan de la Fuente is Partner of the Litigation and Arbitration Department of Garrigues since 2013, where he has pursued all his professional career since 1999. He is currently the Partner in charge of the Litigation and Arbitration Department at the Pamplona office.

In his professional activity, he specializes in the defense and case management of litigation of a civil and corporate/commercial nature: obligations and agreements, noncontractual liability, business law, side agreements, unfair competition, intellectual and industrial property, construction, distribution, etc.

Part of his professional practice deals with alternative dispute resolution or “ADR”. He regularly acts in proceedings before arbitration courts, in both domestic and international arbitration proceedings. He has also practiced as an arbitrator and acted in mediation proceedings.

Juan de la Fuente has a wealth of experience of advising on and resolving corporate disputes, challenging corporate resolutions and taking civil and criminal action to seek the liability of directors. He also regularly advises media outlets on pre-litigation and litigation-related issues with respect to fundamental rights. He has also acted on claims relating to sports clubs and professional sportsmen and women.

Juan de la Fuente is also an expert in Navarre “Foral” Law, with an in-depth knowledge of succession-related matters.

Moreover, Juan de la Fuente can boast a wealth of experience of criminal law, white collar and corporate crime, offenses against workers’ rights and intellectual and industrial property-related crimes, to mention but a few.

He plays an active role in insolvency proceedings, defending the interests of companies, advising financial institutions and taking part in asset acquisitions. He lectures at the Insolvency and Corporate Law Forum organized by Aranzadi.
