Family Business

Álvaro Polo advises national and international clients on civil and commercial lawsuits, particularly on corporate disputes, challenging corporate resolutions, directors' liability, attendance at contentious general shareholder meetings and boards of directors, shareholders' right of separation and non-compliance with shareholders agreements. He also has experience in lawsuits over civil contractual and non-contractual liability, construction and leasing, insurance, consumer law and banking law.

His litigation experience covers insolvency proceedings, and ordinary proceedings and enforcement proceedings with an insolvency element. In criminal law, he advises national and international clients on all areas of criminal law related to business. He regularly participates in criminal proceedings involving financial offenses of an international nature.

Experience

Álvaro Polo is a senior associate in the Litigation and Arbitration and Restructuring and Insolvency practices at the Firm's Zaragoza office.

He has extensive experience in advising and defending domestic and international clients in judicial and arbitral proceedings of a civil and commercial nature. Of particular note is his participation in corporate disputes and disputes relating to the liability of managing bodies, construction defects and the termination and/or interpretation of all kinds of contracts. Likewise, he has extensive experience in the banking sector, both in cases concerning the validity and interpretation of banking contracts, and in enforcement. He has also acted in numerous insolvency proceedings, at times advising the debtor and others the creditor both in the pre-insolvency and insolvency phases.

He also regularly acts in criminal proceedings relating to economic and corporate crime as well as to intellectual and industrial property.
