Miguel Pimentel is a partner in the Tax department. He advises clients in various sectors and industries, particularly in M&A deals and financing transactions with a cross-border element, as well as with the structuring of their Portuguese investments. Miguel has gained significant experience advising banks, investment funds, venture capital and private equity companies both in Portugal and in the US. Miguel has served both the Portuguese Government and an international organization in tax policy roles. He was a member of the Portuguese Corporate Income Tax Reform committee (2013). Miguel has a degree in law from the Lisbon University Law Faculty and an LL.M. in taxation from the Georgetown University Law Center (with distinction, dean's list). He is a member of the Corporate bodies of the Portuguese Tax Association.

Experience

Miguel Pimentel is a partner in the Tax department. He advises clients in various sectors and industries, particularly in deals with a cross-border element.

He has gained significant experience advising banks, investment funds, venture capital and private equity companies both in Portugal and in the US, where he worked from 2015 to 2018 (New York), advising clients in US tax law.

Miguel's expertise covers:

- Supporting Clients in the context of complex M&A transactions and post-deal reorganizations;
- Advising Clients structuring their presence in Portugal, assessing and monitoring their tax position in all stages of their investments;
- Advising Clients structuring their financing needs through different types of financial instruments including equity, quasi-equity, bonds and notes.

- Advising Clients optimizing their after-tax position through the analysis of the availability of tax incentives adapted to their business profile.
- Acting for Clients in the context of transactions involving distressed assets, including NPLs, and financial reorganizations.
- Assisting Clients monitoring compliance with recent international tax developments notably instruments implementing BEPS as well as secondary EU law such as the ATAD Directives.

Miguel's client-base originates from different industries and sectors, including:

- Foreign groups and funds investing in Portuguese-situs real estate, including agricultural assets;
- A Cluster of banks and financing institutions, both Portuguese and foreign-based, working in the custody business.
- Clients working with highly digitized and technology-intensive business models.

Miguel had previously worked with Garrigues Portugal from 2010 to 2012.

Aide to the Secretary of State for Tax Matters (2012-2013), he formed part of the Reform Commission of the IRC (2013), participating in multiple projects producing legislation in the tax area. He is part of the panel of external experts of the IMF (legal and fiscal affairs department).

He has a law degree from Lisbon University, Faculty of Law and an LL.M.

Miguel is a member of the Portuguese Bar Association, the International Fiscal Association (IFA), the corporate bodies of the Portuguese Tax Association (IFA branch), and the Taxes Committee of the International Bar Association.
